As previously reported, by order dated April 30, 2019, the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts (the “District Court”) granted a motion to dismiss a consolidated amended class action complaint (the “Complaint”) filed against Ocular Therapeutix, Inc. (the “Company”) and certain of its current and former executive officers that alleged violations of Sections 10(b) and/or 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder as a result of allegedly false and/or misleading statements concerning a Form 483 issued by the United States Food and Drug Administration related to the Company’s DEXTENZA® product and its manufacturing operations for DEXTENZA. The Complaint sought relief on behalf of stockholders who purchased Company common stock between March 10, 2016 and July 11, 2017.

On May 31, 2019, the plaintiffs filed a notice of appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit regarding the District Court’s opinion and order of dismissal of the Complaint.

The Company denies any allegations of wrongdoing and intends to continue to vigorously defend against this litigation.
